ARTISTS, WRITERS, THINKERS, DREAMERS

By James Gulliver Hancock

Lamington Drive is pleased to present Artists, Writers, Thinkers, Dreamers, a book launch and solo exhibition by James Gulliver Hancock.

To celebrate the launch of James Gulliver Hancock's new book, 'Artists, Writers, Thinkers, Dreamers', Lamington Drive presents the Melbourne installment of a tour spanning five cities across the US and Australia. His latest publication, out through Chronicle Books, depicts historical icons in his eclectic annotated style. A cultural who's-who illuminating 50 famous figures, from Leonardo da Vinci to Coco Chanel, drawing upon the fascinating trivia of their lives.

In his accompanying solo exhibition at Lamington Drive, James presents complimentary works, wall hangings and original process drawings. Hancock's love of colour, paint, and controlled messes was apparent even in his formative years. His artistic process of re-imagining the world around him intersects here with conceptual and philosophical investigations into these iconic figures.

Join us on opening night for a reception with the artist and book signing. Four Pillars Gin will be serving delectable Hemingway Daiquiris throughout the evening.
